

FARM CREDIT BANK OF TEXAS

Dear Steve:

Last November, I attended a session for meeting professionals and hoteliers. Luckily for us, you were our closing guest speaker. It was the perfect ending to several days of training, team building and socializing. As I listened and laughed at your performance, I couldn't help but think how great you'd be for one of my annual meetings. It didn't take me long to contact your office and hire you for the event. And I was right – my audience loved you. Again, another perfect ending to a great convention.

Your stories are something that touches everyone as they are based on everyday life situations. You have a true gift for storytelling. One can't help but laugh and enjoy, yet at the same time, learn from it, as well as be motivated by it. We thank you for bringing us humor and insight.

And we want to wish you the best of luck with your latest book.

Sincerely,

Michelle McCormac, CMP
