

"Improve the economic well-being of agriculture and enrich the quality of farm family life."

Dear Steve:

This note is to thank you for the presentation you gave, "Enjoy the Ride," at our Managers Conference last Wednesday for the Illinois Farm Bureau in Bloomington. The audience really seemed to enjoy your topic.

Based on conversations with the participants and evaluations (which are still coming in) you got primarily an "excellent" rating. More than several mentioned your session as one of the things they liked best about the conference. "I absolutely loved Steve Gilliland's part - it really got me thinking and motivated about what I am doing" was one of my favorite comments...exactly what we hoped for.

Thanks again for a great presentation. "Enjoy the Ride" was the perfect way to end their three days, and a comment I know we will hear again and again.

Sincerely,
